Masonic Order of the Red Cross of Constantine.

Declaration of the principles of the above Order, written in 1806, by the late Judge Waller Rodwell Wright, then M. I. Grand Master of the Order, and R. W. Provincial Grand Master for the Ionian Islands, under the Grand Lodge of England.

“The Order of the Red Cross is one of those numerous branches of Chivalry which had their origin in the holy Wars, and the distinction worn by its Knights was the original badge of the Crusaders in general.

“As this Order never was endowed with particular revenues, its members were for the most part persons of independent condition, or associated with one of the great Sovereign Orders of the Temple, or St. John of Jerusalem.

“As, however, the distinguishing characteristic and constitutions of this Order, though existing only in unwritten tradition, have been partially preserved to the present age, some Knights Templar, zealous in the united cause of Masonry and chivalry, have thought it expedient to revive it, on the footing of its ancient establishment, and that for various reasons:—

“First. Because the original intent of the Masonic Institution has been greatly frustrated by the indiscriminate admission of persons of every description and character.

“Second. Because it unfortunately happens that the sublime branch of our system known by the denomination of Christian Masonry has fallen into still worse hands, whereby the Test of Faith originally required of the Candidates for initiation has been dispensed with, the rites and mysteries of the Order degraded, and selection rendered indispensably necessary.

“Thirdly. And this, indeed, is the most powerful reason which has induced them to bring forward this ancient Order. They earnestly wish to counteract the evil designs to which the privileges of the Masonic system have been perverted by men of unprincipled character, and to combat the enemies of Christianity and social order by the same secret and powerful means which they have made use of to effect their purposes.

“The objects, therefore, of the Red Cross are these:—

“To draw closer the bond of Masonic union, purify the system of Masonic science, extend its limits, and increase its influence by combining such of its professors as are best qualified by character and principle, respectability and influence, genius and talent, to effectuate this great purpose.

“To prevent the perversion of its institutions and privileges to objects contrary to, and abhorrent from its original intent.

“To combat infidelity and treason under whatever form existing, and promote by every humble means the social happiness and eternal welfare of our fellow-creatures.

“It is therefore necessary:—

“That we observe the greatest circumspection in the choice of our members and associates.

“That we adhere inviolably and scrupulously to the principles and constitutions of our Order.

“That we cultivate a strict and fraternal union among ourselves.

“And that we on all occasions give our decided preference to intellectual and moral excellence over every other consideration whatsoever.”

I hereby certify that the manuscript of which the above is a verbatim extract is one of the documents relating to the Red Cross Order, which were found in the archives of the Grand Lodge of England, and handed over by command of the Right Honorable the Earl of Zetland P. G. M., then M. W. Grand Master, to Lord Kenlis, the head of the Order of the Red Cross in England.

Grand Secretary of the United Grand Lodge of England.

HISTORY.

After the memorable battle fought at Saxa Rubra, on the 28th of October, A. D. 313, the Emperor Constantine sent for the Chiefs of the Christian legion, and, (we here quote the words of an old ritual,) in the presence of his other officers, constituted them into an Order of Knighthood, and appointed them to wear the form of the cross he had seen in the heavens upon their shields, with the motto In hoc signo vinces round it, surrounded with clouds. He became the sovereign patron of the Christian Order of the Red Cross.

This cross was ordered to be embroidered upon all the imperial standards. The Christian warriors were selected by Constantine as his body guard, and the command of these soldiers of the cross was confided to Eusebius, Bishop of Nicomedia, who was thus considered the Viceroy, or second in command.

After the death of Constantine, the Order flourished during the reigns of Marcian and Leo I; but its history is enshrouded somewhat, until the year 1190, when it was revived by the Emperor Isaac Angelus Comnenus on a scale of magnificent splendor.

From 1190 to 1699, the Grand Mastership was vested in the Comnenus family, who were considered the lineal descendants of Constantine; and on the resignation of Andrew Angelus Flavius Comnenus, Francis Farnese, the reigning Duke of Parma, became his successor.

The Abbe Giustiniani, who was attached to the Venetian embassy in London, conferred, by authority, the Order in England; but at what precise time it became restricted to Freemasons we cannot positively state.

In 1788, many distinguished Freemasons and Knights Templar were admitted, and among the number, a majority of the grand officers of the various Masonic grand bodies of England. Lord Raneliffe, Grand Master of the Templars, Judge Waller Rodwell Wright, Provincial Grand Master for the Ionian Islands, and a personal friend of the Dukes of Sussex and Kent, were among the permanent and active members of the Illustrious Order in 1796.

In 1808, the written history shows a revival in the Order, by the introduction of some of the most distinguished Templars and Masons, among whom are Earls, Lords, Dukes, Ministers, &c.

Year after year, from this period, we find the Order increasing in dignity, efficiency in numerical strength, until his Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex was unanimously elected Grand Master of the Order, for and during his natural life, in 1813.

In this year, the two Grand Lodges of England entered into articles of union, and among the articles, we quote the second, which reads thus: "It is declared and pronounced that pure and ancient Masonry consists of three degrees, and no more, viz: those of E. A., F. C., and M. M., including the Supreme Order of the Holy Royal Arch." But this article is not intended to prevent any Lodge or Chapter from holding a meeting in any of the degrees of the Orders of Chivalry, according to the Constitution of the said Orders.

For the information of our members, we will state that the KNIGHTS TEMPLAR, KNIGHTS OF THE RED CROSS, and KNIGHTS OF THE HOLY SEPULCHRE were the only organized Chivalric Orders existing in England at the time of the Union, in 1813, and, consequently, the above permissive clause applies solely to their members.

From that time forward the Order has flourished, and no disturbance has taken place among the brethren—it being under the Grand Mastership of the Earl of Beattie.

We now come to its introduction into the UNITED STATES.

After much correspondence had taken place between the Eminent and Illustrious Sir W. J. B. McLeod Moore, of La Prairie, Canada, and Chief Inspector General of Knights of the Red Cross, and Lord Kenlis, in regard to the introduction of these Christian and Chivalric Orders into the United States, the following letter was forwarded to Sir Alfred Creigh, with whom Sir W. J. B. McLeod Moore, Chief Inspector General, had been in correspondence on the subject :

LA PRAIRIE, PROVINCE OF QUEBEC,
DOMINION OF CANADA, November 2, 1872.

MOST EMINENT AND PERFECT KNIGHT: *

It affords me pleasure to inform you that the Most Puissant the Grand Sovereign of the Order of Red Cross of Rome and Constantine in England, the Right Honorable Lord Kenlis, has fully authorized me, by letter from the Grand Recorder of the Order, Illustrious Sir Knight Robt. Wentworth Little, dated London, 16th February, 1870, to introduce this Chivalric and Christian Order into the United States of America, premising that, until the Order is sufficiently established, the United States Knights must hold under England; but should the Order spread in the United States of America, they can remain in full union with the Grand Council of England or obtain Grand Councils of their own, in fraternity with England, as they please. Having now obtained from you the preliminary vow, signed by yourself and eleven other worthy and illustrious brethren, Sir Knights of the Order of the Temple, I hereby forward you the authorized rituals of the three grades of the Order, together with a commission to establish the Order in the State of Pennsylvania, United States of America.

The whole of the petitioning Knights, who have signed the vow, can receive the three grades; and on the formation of new Conclaves, until the Order is fully established, you can confer the second or Viceroy grade on seven of the Knights, and the third grade or that of Honorary Sovereign on three of the Knights.

Wishing you every success in the establishment of the Imperial, Ecclesiastical and Military Order of the Red Cross of Rome and Constantine in the State of Pennsylvania,

I am ever,

Most Eminent and Perfect Knight,

Most fraternally yours,

W. J. B. McLEOD MOORE,

Chief Inspector General of Canada and Representative of Gr. Council of England.

With this letter was forwarded the enclosed commission, which reads as follows:

LA PRAIRIE, PROVINCE OF QUEBEC, DOMINION OF CANADA.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY, That the very enlightened and perfect Knight Alfred Creigh, 33°, (an L. L. D.,) of Washington, Washington county, Pennsylvania, United States of America, is, by the authority invested in me, as the representative of the Grand Council of the Order of the Red Cross of Rome and Constantine in England, authorized to introduce and establish this Imperial, Ecclesiastical and Military Order into the State of Pennsylvania, United States of America.

And further, That the aforesaid Very Eminent and Perfect Knight Alfred Creigh is hereby commissioned by me and appointed a Divisional Inspector General of the Order in the said State of Pennsylvania.

Given under my hand and seal of arms, this 30th day of September, A. L. 5874, A. D. 1870, A. O. 1557.

W. J. B. McLEOD MOORE,

Chief Insp. Gen. K. R. C. of Canada.

Upon the receipt of this commission, Sir Alfred Creigh organized Conclaves in Washington, Bloomsburg, Reading, Harrisburg, and Allentown. But on the 1st of January, 1871, his authority was enlarged by a commission direct from England, which reads as follows.

IN THE NAME OF THE MOST GLORIOUS TRINITY IN UNITY.

From the East in London, a Place full of Light, wherein reign
Silence and Peace but Darkness comprehendeth it not.

To whom it may concern, Greeting, but more especially to the Knights Companion of the Imperial, Ecclesiastical and Military Order of the Red Cross of Rome and Constantine, the Invincible Order of Knights of the Holy Sepulchre and the Holy Order of St. John :

KNOW YE, That, in consideration of the great trust and confidence we repose in our well-beloved Companion, the Illustrious Sir Knight ALFRED CREIGH, L. L. D., of Washington, Washington county, Pennsylvania, United States of America, we do hereby delegate him as our representative, and appoint him our Intendant General for the State of Pennsylvania and for all other States in the American Union, for which there is no Intendant General commissioned; and the Illustrious Knight Alfred Creigh is hereby empowered to instal Master Masons of good repute as members of the aforesaid Illustrious Order the of Red Cross, for the purpose of forming new Conclaves: and further authorized to inspect such Conclaves when established, and to hear and decide upon all matters affecting the well being of the Order, subject, nevertheless, to appeal to our supreme adjudication and determination.

Provided, also, That the said Illustrious Knight shall transmit, or cause to be transmitted, to us, Thomas, Earl of Bective, or to the Most Eminent Sir Frederick Martin Williams, Baronet, Member of Parliament for Truro, our Grand Viceroy or Eusebius, or to the Most Illustrious Grand Sovereign or Grand Viceroy for the time being, all returns, fees and payments on behalf of the members of such Conclaves, now or hereafter to be established in the said State of Pennsylvania and all other States in the American Union for which there is no Intendant General commissioned, as may be required by the general statutes or the edicts of the Grand Imperial Council. Otherwise this our commission shall cease to be of any force or virtue, and become absolutely null and void.

And we pray the Omnipotent Ruler of the Universe to have the said Illustrious Knight Alfred Creigh in His most holy keeping.

Given at our Grand Council Chamber, Freemasons' Tavern, London, and sealed with the Seals of the aforesaid Orders of the Red Cross and Knights of the Holy

BECTIVE,

Grand Sovereign,

FRED'K M. WILLIAMS,

Gr. V. or Eusebius,

ATTEST:—R. WESTWORTH LITTLE,

Gr. Recorder.

As we have given the authority upon which the Order was introduced into the United States, although the commission states that it may be conferred upon Master Masons, yet those who were instrumental in its introduction, learning that it was purely Christian in its character, resolved that it should be confined to those who had taken the Commandery degrees. To settle, therefore, this fact, we will call the attention of the Sir Knights to the letter of Nov. 2, 1870, from Sir Moore, in which he states "that having now received the preliminary vow, signed by yourself and eleven other worthy and illustrious brethren, Sir Knights of the Order of the Temple, I forward you the authorized rituals. The diploma which each Sir Knight receives from England, commences with these words: "In the name of the Most Holy and Blessed Trinity and Unity." So also, in a letter from the Grand Recorder Little, dated July 8, 1872, writes: "The rule you have adopted as to restricting the Order in the States to Templars is doubtless a wise and salutary one," and is in accordance with the declaration of principles, as contained on pages 3 and 4.

We now proceed with our history.

On the 23rd of May, 1871, Sir R. Wentworth Little, Grand Recorder, wrote to the Eminent Sir Alfred Creigh that it was the request of the Earl of Bective, Grand Sovereign of the Order, that he should assume the title of "Chief Intendant General for the Northern Jurisdiction of the United States of America."

On October 4, 1871, the rank of Past Grand Viceroy of the Grand Council of England was conferred upon the Eminent and Illustrious Alfred Creigh, for his faithful and meritorious services.

On December 27, 1871, the Grand Recorder Little informs Sir Creigh, the Chief Intendant General of the Northern Jurisdiction, that the Order of Red Cross of Constantine and Appendant Orders cannot be introduced into any of the American States without the Chief Intendant's General sanction; that he being the appointed chief, all business of the Order must be transacted through him.

February 5, 1872, Sir Alfred Creigh, Chief Intendant General, was authorized to appoint Intendants General for each State in which no Independent State Grand Council was organized, and under that authority he appointed Eminent and Illustrious Sir C. L. Stowell, for Pennsylvania; Eminent and Illustrious Sir J. J. French, for Illinois; Eminent and Illustrious Sir A. G. Goodall, for New York; Eminent and Illustrious D. Burnham Tracy, for Michigan; and Sir N. G. Tucker, for Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

At a preliminary meeting of the officers of the various Councils organized in Pennsylvania, and held December 5th, 1871. in Philadelphia, it was Resolved, That application should be made, through Sir Alfred Creigh, to establish an Independent State Grand Body.

And, on the 25th of January, 1872, the following authority was issued :

WHEREAS, It has been represented to me, by our trusty and well-beloved Frater Sir Knight Alfred Creigh, L. L. D., Chief Intendant General of the Order for the United States of America, that it will conduce to the stability and prosperity of the Order in Pennsylvania, if the Knights resident in that State be permitted to organize an Independent Grand Council for Pennsylvania:

Know ye, all whom it may concern, That we, Thomas, Earl of Beective, Grand Sovereign, do hereby authorize and empower the aforesaid Sir Knight Alfred Creigh to take such measures as may seem to him expedient for the organization and permanent establishment of a Grand Council for the State of Pennsylvania: Provided, that the consent of a majority of the representatives of the Conclaves now existing within the limits of the State be signified, after due notice and in conformity with these presents.

And we charge the aforesaid Knight to make known to us, for the information of our Grand Council, all the proceedings which shall be taken in reference to the formation of the Grand Council of Pennsylvania, hereby confirming him as our special representative and Chief Intendant General for ALL the States of the American Union, until Independent Grand Councils shall be organized in each State.

Herewith we have subscribed our name and affixed the Seal of our Grand Council.

[SEAL.]

BECTIVE,
Grand Sovereign.

In accordance with this authority, circulars were issued to the following conclaves, then in existence in Pennsylvania. viz: U. S. Premier Conclave, No. 38, at Washington; Orient Conclave, No. 45, at Bloomsburg, Constantine, No. 46, at Reading; Trinity, No. 47, at Harrisburg; Mary, No. 48, at Allentown; Bellefonte, No. 51, at Bellefonte; Allegheny, No. 53, at Allegheny; Philadelphia No. 57, at Philadelphia; Earl of Beective, No. 58, at Towanda; Red Rose, No. 59, at Columbia; Rose of Sharou, No. 60, at Rouseville; Corry, No. 71, at Corry; Sage Conclave, No. 74, at Franklin; and Lilly of the Valley, No. 75, at Titusville; which gave their consent as prescribed to the formation of a Grand Council, and the 14th day of June, 1872. was designated, and the city of Reading, as the place of meeting.
